Study abroad is a life-transforming learning experience. Such an experience affects your personal and academic life, while enhancing your cross-cultural understanding of the world.

The course offers comprehensive reentry support for students who have participated in study abroad programs.

IDS 156 brings you opportunities to reflect upon what you have learned abroad and articulate your experiences, enabling you to build new intercultural competence and enhance global perspective.

Make the most of your study abroad experience!

After your travels take
IDS 156, Study Abroad Reentry Seminar
TUESDAYS | 4:00 - 5:30 PM | September 2 - October 21, 2014
Instructor: Jacqueline Rioja Velarde, Associate Director CAWC

Study abroad is a life-transforming learning experience. Such an experience affects your personal and academic life, while enhancing your cross-cultural understanding of the world.

The course offers comprehensive reentry support for students who have participated in study abroad programs.

IDS 156 brings you opportunities to reflect upon what you have learned abroad and articulate your experiences, enabling you to build new intercultural competence and enhance global perspective.

MiamiOH.edu/CAWC